THE MOTHER BENEATH THE BED

Your patron is Umbirgitte, the Veiled Mother, She Who Waits in the Dark. Once a mortal student of the Scholia Diaspros, she was reborn in a cataclysm of fear and sorrow, becoming a proto-Darkforme goddess. Umbra is not a patron of malice, but of twisted, suffocating protection. She believes that true safety is found only in absolute terror—a child too scared to leave their bed cannot wander into danger. Warlocks who forge a pact with her become conduits of this belief, wielding fear not as a weapon of cruelty, but as a tool of ultimate, terrifying care. Your magic is that of the bump in the night, the clutching shadow, and the chilling whisper that promises safety in exchange for a lifetime of fear.

EXPANDED SPELL LIST

Spell Level	Spells
1st	Cause Fear, Silent Image
2nd	Darkness, Phantasmal Force
3rd	Hunger of Hadar, Monster in the Closet
4th	Phantasmal Killer, Hallucinatory Terrain
5th	Dream, Isolating Nightmare

PACT OF NIGHTMARES

1st-level Mother Beneath the Bed feature

You can tap into a creature's deepest childhood fears. As an action, you can force one creature you can see within 60 feet to make a Wisdom saving throw against your warlock spell save DC. On a failed save, the creature is frightened of you for 1 minute.

Additionally, while the creature is frightened in this way, it perceives you as a monstrous, shadowy version of a parental figure. It cannot willingly end its turn farther away from you than it started. The creature can repeat the saving throw at the end of each of its turns, ending the effect on itself on a success.

Once you use this feature, you can't use it again until you finish a short or long rest.

THE THING IN THE DARK

6th-level Mother Beneath the Bed feature

You learn to summon a fragment of Umbra's essence to protect your "nursery." As an action, you can summon a Darkling-Slurper in an unoccupied space you can see within 30 feet. The Darkling is loyal to you and your companions and acts on its own initiative. It remains for 1 hour, until it is reduced to 0 hit points, or until you dismiss it as an action.

Once you summon a Darkling with this feature, you can't do so again until you finish a long rest.

UNSETTLING AURA

10th-level Mother Beneath the Bed feature

Your presence exudes a constant, low-level dread that unnerves those around you. You gain resistance to psychic damage. Additionally, any hostile creature that starts its turn within 10 feet of you has its speed halved until the start of its next turn as the shadows seem to cling to its feet.

EMBODIMENT OF FEAR

14th-level Mother Beneath the Bed feature

You have become a true avatar of your patron's dogma. As an action, you can transform into a horrifying figure of pure terror for 1 minute. While transformed, you gain the following benefits:

- You are immune to psychic damage and the frightened condition.
- You emanate an aura of terror in a 30-foot radius. The first time any hostile creature enters the aura or starts its turn there, it must succeed on a Wisdom saving throw against your spell save DC or be frightened of you for 1 minute. A creature can repeat the saving throw at the end of each of its turns, ending the effect on itself on a success.
- When a creature frightened by you takes psychic damage from one of your spells or features, it takes an additional 2d10 psychic damage.

Once you use this feature, you can't use it again until you finish a long rest.

THE GREAT WEAVER

Your patron is not a single entity, but the collective consciousness and ancient tradition of the Diaparachnids, the master weavers of the Scholia Diaspros. Since the founding of the Academy, these sophisticated arachnoids have woven the very fabric of its history, from enchanted banners to the first magically reinforced diapers. A pact with the Great Weaver is a bond with this ancient lineage of artisans. You learn their secret techniques, drawing power from the threads of creation, community, and containment. Your magic is that of the loom, the web, and the perfectly crafted swaddle, capable of ensnaring foes, reinforcing allies, and mending the world one stitch at a time.

EXPANDED SPELL LIST

Spell Level	Spells
1st	Ensnaring Strike, Reinforce Padding
2nd	Web, Spider Climb
3rd	Glyph of Warding, Slow
4th	Fabricate, Stone Shape
5th	Creation, Hold Monster

PACT OF THE WEAVER

1st-level Great Weaver feature

You gain proficiency with weaver's tools. Additionally, you learn the Mending cantrip, which doesn't count against your number of cantrips known.

You can also use your connection to the Weaver to produce a special silk. As a bonus action, you can expend a warlock spell slot to create a number of Silk Charges equal to the level of the spell slot expended. You can have a maximum number of Silk Charges equal to your proficiency bonus. These charges last until you finish a long rest.

You can expend Silk Charges to create one of the following effects:

- Sticky Thread (1 Charge): As an action, make a ranged spell attack against a creature within 30 feet. On a hit, the target is restrained by sticky silk until the end of its next turn.
- Reinforce Padding (1 Charge): As a bonus action, you touch a diaper. It gains temporary hit points equal to your Charisma modifier + your warlock level. While these temporary hit points last, the wearer has a +1 bonus to AC.

MANY-ARMED WEAVER

6th-level Great Weaver feature

You can manifest two spectral, arachnid-like arms for 1 minute. While the arms are present, you gain the following benefits:

- You can interact with a second object or feature of the environment for free during your turn.
- You have advantage on checks made to maintain a grapple.
- When you cast a spell with a casting time of 1 action, you can use your bonus action to help a friendly creature within 5 feet of you, granting them advantage on their next ability check.

You can manifest these arms once, and regain the ability to do so when you finish a short or long rest.

FORTRESS WEAVING

10th-level Great Weaver feature

Your silk becomes incredibly resilient. When you use your Sticky Thread feature, the target is restrained for a number of rounds equal to your Charisma modifier (minimum of 1). The creature can use its action on its turn to make a Strength (Athletics) check against your spell save DC to break free.

Additionally, when you use Reinforce Padding, the temporary hit points granted increase to twice your warlock level + your Charisma modifier.

LIVING TAPESTRY

14th-level Great Weaver feature

As an action, you can channel the ultimate secret of the Great Weaver, transforming your silk into living constructs. You expend 5 Silk Charges to summon two Giant Spiders. The spiders are friendly to you and your companions and act on their own initiative. They remain for 1 hour, until they are reduced to 0 hit points, or until you dismiss them as a bonus action.

Once you use this feature, you cannot use it again until you finish a long rest.

THE UNSEEN HAND

Your patron is a clandestine organization, a shadowy cabal, or perhaps a single, enigmatic spymaster who operates behind the scenes of the Scholia Diaspros. This is not a pact for power, but for influence. The Unseen Hand deals in secrets, manipulation, and the subtle art of ensuring things go according to their grand, inscrutable plan. Warlocks of this pact are agents, infiltrators, and provocateurs. They might be loyal to the ideals of the Academy and working to protect it from within, or they could be double agents for an outside power. Your magic is not flashy; it is the art of the convenient accident, the misplaced item, and the perfectly timed wardrobe malfunction that can change the course of a battle or a political debate.

EXPANDED SPELL LIST

Spell Level	Spells
1st	Command, Spontaneous Accident
2nd	Invisibility, Knock
3rd	Nondetection, Mundane Makeover
4th	Confusion, Greater Invisibility
5th	Modify Memory, Seeming

PACT OF THE UNSEEN HAND

1st-level Unseen Hand feature

You gain proficiency in your choice of two of the following skills: Deception, Insight, Investigation, Sleight of Hand, or Stealth.

Additionally, you learn to subtly manipulate fate. When a creature you can see within 30 feet makes an ability check, you can use your reaction to give that creature either advantage or disadvantage on the roll.

You can use this feature a number of times equal to your proficiency bonus, and you regain all expended uses when you finish a long rest.

AGENT OF MISDIRECTION

6th-level Unseen Hand feature

You excel at creating chaos and capitalizing on it. When a creature fails a saving throw against one of your enchantment or illusion spells, you can immediately become invisible until the end of your next turn. The invisibility ends if you attack or cast a spell.

Additionally, you can cast invisibility once without expending a spell slot. You regain the ability to do so when you finish a long rest.

PLAUSIBLE DENIABILITY

10th-level Unseen Hand feature

Your magic is difficult to trace back to you. When a creature attempts to identify you as the source of a spell you have cast, they do so with disadvantage on their ability check (such as Intelligence (Arcana)).

Furthermore, you can subtly alter the verbal and somatic components of your spells to be less conspicuous. You can replace the verbal component of a spell with a series of innocuous coughs, whispers, or coded phrases, and the somatic component with simple gestures like adjusting your clothes or tapping your foot.

MASTER OF THE GRAND GAME

14th-level Unseen Hand feature

You have become a master manipulator, capable of turning your enemies against each other. As an action, you can target two creatures you can see within 60 feet of you. Both targets must make a Wisdom saving throw against your warlock spell save DC. If both creatures fail, they become charmed by you for 1 minute. While charmed in this way, each creature regards the other as its most hated enemy and will use its turn to move towards and attack the other creature to the best of its ability.

If only one creature fails its saving throw, it is charmed by you for 1 minute and regards you as a trusted ally.

The creatures can repeat the saving throw whenever they take damage from the other charmed creature (if both failed) or from you or your allies (if only one failed).

Once you use this feature, you can't use it again until you finish a long rest.

THE DARK DIAPER MAIDEN

Your patron is an enigmatic fey or fiend of immense power, a being who finds beauty and strength in the dual nature of padded dependency. The Dark Diaper Maiden is a purveyor of secrets, a master of temptation, and a weaver of wiles. She understands that the crinkle of a diaper can be both an innocent invitation and a warning of hidden power. A pact with her is an agreement to walk a fine line between charm and control, using the symbols of youth and helplessness as tools of profound influence. Her warlocks are captivating and cunning, able to disarm with a smile before revealing the restrictive power they hold in reserve.

EXPANDED SPELL LIST

Spell Level	Spells
1st	Charm Person, Crinkly Invitation
2nd	Misty Step, Uncontrollable Fantasy
3rd	Big Babification, Messy Misdirection
4th	Compulsion, Greater Invisibility
5th	Dominate Person, Seeming

PACT OF THE CRINKLE

1st-level Dark Diaper Maiden feature

Your patron bestows upon you an aura of captivating innocence and underlying menace. As an action, you can target one creature you can see within 30 feet. The target must make a Wisdom saving throw against your warlock spell save DC. On a failed save, you can choose to either charm or frighten the creature for 1 minute.

- Charmed: The creature is charmed by you, regarding you as a cute, harmless individual it wishes to please. It will not willingly harm you.
- Frightened: The creature is frightened of you, unnerved by the implications of your power.

The creature can repeat the saving throw at the end of each of its turns, ending the effect on itself on a success. Once you use this feature, you can't use it again until you finish a short or long rest.

BEGUILING DEFENSE

6th-level Dark Diaper Maiden feature

You gain proficiency in the Deception and Persuasion skills.

Additionally, you can turn aside attacks with your disarming presence. When a creature you can see attacks you, you can use your reaction to force the attacker to make a Wisdom saving throw against your warlock spell save DC. On a failed save, the attacker must choose a new target or the attack misses.

You can use this feature a number of times equal to your Charisma modifier (a minimum of once), and you regain all expended uses when you finish a long rest.

WARDROBE WIPEOUT

10th-level Dark Diaper Maiden feature

You can magically alter a foe's equipment with humiliating effect. As an action, you target one creature you can see within 60 feet. The target must make a Wisdom saving throw against your warlock spell save DC. On a failed save, you can choose one of the following effects, which lasts for 1 minute:

- Weapon Swap: One nonmagical weapon the creature is holding is transformed into a harmless, embarrassing object (like a giant pacifier or a squeaky toy).
- Armor Alteration: The creature's nonmagical armor is transformed into a frilly, bulky, and restrictive diaper of your choice. While transformed, the armor provides an AC of 10 + the creature's Dexterity modifier and imposes disadvantage on its attack rolls.

Once you use this feature, you can't use it again until you finish a short or long rest.

ABSOLUTE ALLURE

14th-level Dark Diaper Maiden feature

You can unleash the full, overwhelming power of your patron's charm. As an action, you can emanate an aura of irresistible allure in a 30-foot radius for 1 minute. Each hostile creature that starts its turn in the aura must succeed on a Wisdom saving throw against your warlock spell save DC or be charmed by you for the duration.

A creature charmed in this way is utterly captivated. It cannot take actions or reactions and will use its movement on each of its turns to move closer to you. As a bonus action on your turn, you can issue a one-word command (such as "Kneel," "Drop," or "Protect") to one of the charmed creatures, which it will obey on its next turn to the best of its ability before resuming its movement toward you.

The charm ends for a creature if it takes damage or if someone uses an action to shake the creature out of its stupor. Once you use this feature, you can't use it again until you finish a long rest.

THE GRIM GUARDIAN

Your patron is an ancient, melancholy entity obsessed with protection through pacification. The Grim Guardian—sometimes called the Eternal Caretaker or Father Time-Out—witnessed the horrors that ambition, passion, and maturity bring upon the world. He has concluded that the only true way to shield his flock from the pain of loss and the violence of conflict is to take from them the very capacity for such things. He offers a pact of absolute safety, a promise to guard you from death and despair. The price is your maturity. His magic is not one of joyful regression, but of somber, enforced innocence. His warlocks become instruments of this grim philosophy, turning would-be heroes into harmless children and battlefields into quiet, orderly nurseries.

EXPANDED SPELL LIST

Spell Level	Spells
1st	Disguise Age, Hymn of the Lullaby
2nd	Babybrain, Calm Emotions
3rd	Cradle of Comfort, Slow
4th	Confusion, Forced Second Childhood
5th	Hold Monster, Telekinesis

PACT OF REGRESSION

1st-level Grim Guardian feature

You can inflict a state of magical infancy upon a creature. As an action, choose one creature you can see within 60 feet. The target must make a Wisdom saving throw against your warlock spell save DC. On a failed save, the creature's mind is clouded with infantile thoughts for 1 minute.

While affected, the creature cannot cast spells or activate magic items, and it has disadvantage on Intelligence and Wisdom ability checks. At the end of each of its turns, the target can repeat the saving throw, ending the effect on itself on a success.

Once you use this feature, you can't use it again until you finish a short or long rest.

PROTECTIVE SWADDLING

6th-level Grim Guardian feature

You can shield your allies from harm, but at the cost of their autonomy. When a friendly creature you can see within 30 feet of you is hit by an attack, you can use your reaction to grant that creature resistance to the damage from that attack. However, the creature is then magically swaddled, and its speed is reduced to 0 until the end of its next turn.

AURA OF QUIESCENCE

10th-level Grim Guardian feature

You are always surrounded by an aura of enforced calm. The area in a 10-foot radius around you is difficult terrain for any hostile creature.

Additionally, you are immune to the charmed and frightened conditions as your patron's power suppresses such volatile emotions within you.

THE ETERNAL NURSERY

14th-level Grim Guardian feature

As an action, you can transform a 30-foot cube centered on you into a manifestation of your patron's will for 1 minute. The area takes on the appearance of a somber, unnaturally quiet nursery.

Within this area, you and your allies gain the benefits of the sanctuary spell (the saving throw DC equals your warlock spell save DC). Any hostile creature that starts its turn in the area must succeed on a Wisdom saving throw or be affected by the slow spell until the start of its next turn.

Once you use this feature, you can't use it again until you finish a long rest.
